BIG GUN AT THE BIG WORLD'S FAIR

INTERESTING DRILLS WITH LAT-EST COAST DEFENCE ARMA-MENT—AN UNUSUAL SIGHT.

The United States government is now daily giving interesting drills with some of the big coast defense guns.
They are of various kinds and sizes, from the hidden mortar that throws thousand pound shells into the air, to the imposing twelve-inch gun that rises up and fires and then drops down again out of sight.

The latter is posted in a pit in the side of Government Hill, where a detachment of soldiers has worked diligently for months, installing the heavy pieces.

It is operated by the aid of electricity At the command of an officer, the men uncrew and throw open the breech, a small carriage is wheeled into position bearing the shot, which at the word, is rammed home, and followed by what is supposed to be a 250-pound charge of powder. Then the heavy breech is closed, the ratchet is released and weights lift the gun until it is high in the air, frowning over the parapets. It is then sighted and the word to fire is given.
There is a jerk of the lanyard, which, of course, is supposed to explode the charge. There is no explosion, however, for even a blank from the big gun would bring the frail Fair buildings tumbling about the ears of the onlookers.

It is a wonderfully interesting sight, however, especially to those dwelling inland, who have never had the opportunity to see any specimens of coast defense armament. Even those who live near the big fortifications are very seldom allowed to witness the operation of these big guns.

All who desire to do so, however, can gaze at the big gun exhibit at the World's Fair in our splendid series of World's Fair views, which are now being distributed on nominal terms.

Readers are, by this time, well acquainted with the plan and scope of the distribution and most of them appreciate the exceptional opportunity afforded to secure the Forest City series, which is not only interesting, but educational.

Everything is explained in our Forest City announcement printed from time to time.

CHINA MAKING READY.

Associated Press, Morning Service.
PEKING, August 17.—The railways have been asked if they are able to transport 40,000 troops to Shanghai-Kwan.

Shanghai-Kwan is an important strategic point on the Gulf of Pechili. The place is on the railway leading from Peking, via Tientsin, to Simuntun, west of Mukden, and to Yinkow, the latter place being in the possession of the Japanese. From Peking to Shanghai-Kwan is a distance of about 150 miles, while from Shanghai-Kwan to Mukden it is about 200 miles. The railway stretches north to Simuntun near which a Japanese force is now said to be operating, and should the Chinese assist in the war they could be hurried north from Shanghai-Kwan very rapidly.

HAWAII TO BE ONE COUNTY

COUNTY ACT COMMISSION SO DE-CIDED AT ITS MEETING LAST NIGHT—GOVERNOR TO BE SEEN

That the island of Hawaii shall form only one county was the decision of the County Act Commission at its meeting last night. There was a division of opinion on the advisability of this course, Commissioners Crabbe, Stewart and Cooper voting for it and Watson against. The majority prevailed. It was further decided that the county of Hawaii shall have nine supervisors one for each district, while the county of Oahu shall have seven and the counties of Maui and Kauai shall have five each.

A letter was read from North Kahala strongly urging that Hawaii should be but one county and that Hilo should be selected as the county seat.

The Honolulu Trades and Labor Council wrote as follows:

Honolulu, H. T. August 9, 1904.
Hon. H. E. Cooper, Chairman of County Commission, Honolulu, H. T.

Dear Sir: At the regular meeting of the Honolulu Trades & Labor Council held at Portland Building the following resolutions were passed:

Resolved, That the Honolulu Trades & Labor Council endorse the citizen Labor clause proposed by Mr. J. Emmeluth at your last meeting and reading as follows:

In all contracts to which the County is a party the following clause shall be inserted: "All parties to this contract and all workmen employed thereunder shall be citizens or eligible to become citizens of the United States. Eight hours actual labor shall constitute a day's work whether under contract or otherwise. Provision for penalty for violation of same." We suggest that the penalty for violation be fixed at $10 for each man and each day's employment.

Respectfully,
GEO. A. CROZIER,
Sec'y Hon. T. & L. Council.

It was suggested by Commissioner Crabbe that Molokai should not be organized as a county and he favored making the leper settlement a township under control of the board of health but Commissioner Watson pointed out that if the Commission could make townships for Molokai it could also create a municipal government for Honolulu. It was finally decided to leave the management of the settlement in its present form.

The island of Nihaui, it was decided will become a part of the district of Waimea.

It was agreed that when the matter of duties of different officers came up they should be defined in the following order: Treasurer, sheriff, clerk, auditor district attorney, recorder, surveyor and coroner.

Upon motion it was decided that the chairman should wait on Governor Carter to report the progress made by the Commission and to have a date set apart for the commission to call on the governor and so learn from him any new views that he may have on the County Act.

WHERE ROOSEVELT RELAXES STRENUOSITY

THE ROOSEVELT HOME AT OYSTER BAY

President Roosevelt has a handsome and comfortable house on Long Island, where he spends the summer. Although a man of considerable wealth the place is notable for its impretentious appearance.

The President spends his vacation—when he is not hunting—at Oyster Bay.
The Oyster Bay home is to Roosevelt what a fishing trip was to President Cleveland, a refuge from the cares of his most exacting office. It is understood that when the President goes to Oyster Bay he is in comparative retirement, though by no means completely isolated, for visitors frequently invade the quietness of the Oyster Bay home.

President Roosevelt was at his Oyster Bay home when the Republican convention nominated him for President in the present campaign. He was with Mrs.
Roosevelt when the news was first communicated to him, by a representative of the press, as in the case of Parker.
